

ELAINE TRUMPETTO

Executive Director

Elaine Trumpetto currently serves as the Executive Director for The Council on Addiction Prevention and Education of Dutchess County, Inc.; a position that she has held since August 2007. A graduate of Colgate University with and M.A. in Counseling, Elaine has spent her adult life in public service career paths beginning with public education. In her private life, Elaine has been a resident of East Fishkill since 1982 and has volunteered extensively in her community within public schools, municipalities and civic/religious organizations. She resides at home with her husband and two children and enjoys reading, walking, genealogy and the beach with Biscuit; the family's Cavalier King Charles Spaniel.