

Kelly Ramsey

Kelly S. Ramsey, MD graduated from Case Western Reserve University School of Medicine in Cleveland, OH in 2003, and from the School of Graduate Studies with an MA in Bioethics in 2004. She finished her residency in Social Internal Medicine from Montefiore Medical Center in the Bronx. She also has an MPH in Epidemiology from the University of Illinois at Chicago School of Public Health, and a BSFS in International Politics from the Georgetown University School of Foreign Service.

Dr. Ramsey has been at HRHCare (2011-present), which is a network of community health centers providing comprehensive care in the Hudson Valley and Long Island. Dr. Ramsey is an Internal Medicine physician with a focused practice on HIV, HCV, and substance use disorder (including Medication Assisted Treatment for opioid use disorder). Dr. Ramsey is the Medical Director of Substance Use Disorders at HRHCare. Prior to 2011, Dr. Ramsey served as the Medical Director of the Wellness Center at Port Morris in the Division of Substance Abuse at the Albert Einstein College of Medicine and as an attending Physician in Internal Medicine at Montefiore Medical Center.

Dr. Ramsey serves as a board member on NYSAM (New York Society of Addiction Medicine) and co-chair of their CME Committee.